 - Q&A/Discussion

Heather is a former anti-vax mom and influencer who will share how her outlook on immunizations changed when it came to protecting her daughter.

“I think pro-vaxxers and anti-vaxxers are both just trying to protect their kid. A lot of that stems from a place of fear on both sides. You know, you don’t want your kid to get measles. I mean, it’s a healthy fear of vaccine-preventable diseases. I think with the anti-vaxxers, it gets to an unhealthy fear.” - Heather
